Goods and Services Tax

Unless otherwise stated, any amount specified in the Agreement as the consideration payable for any taxable supply does not include any Goods and Services Tax (GST) payable in respect of that supply.

If a party makes a taxable supply under the Agreement (Supplier), then the recipient of the taxable supply (recipient) must also pay, in addition to the consideration for that supply, the amount of GST payable in respect of the taxable supply at the time the consideration for the taxable supply is payable.

Despite anything stated in this clause, the recipient is not obliged under the Agreement to pay the amount of any GST payable until the supplier provides it with a valid tax invoice for the taxable supply.

If an adjustment event arises in relation to a taxable supply made by a supplier under the Agreement, the amount paid or payable by the recipient pursuant to clause 16(c) will be amended to reflect this and a payment will be made by the recipient to the supplier or vice versa as the case may be.

If a third party makes a taxable supply and the Agreement requires a party to the Agreement (the Payer) to pay for, reimburse or contribute to (Pay) any expense or liability incurred by the other party to that third party for that taxable supply, the amount the Payer must Pay will be the amount of the expense or liability plus the amount of any GST payable in respect thereof but reduced by the amount of any input tax credit to which the other party is entitled in respect of the expense or liability.
